

To my Dakini Sakshi

Sakshi, you muse of beauty
Are a glory of joy
You bring me hope, confidence
And bliss, you cosmic companion;
Everything about you seems divine to me

And your heart makes me
Feel happy, poet of melancholy;
We miraculously together
Found, yes, a connection of the heart
Unite us; meek and emphatic
Your connection to me, only you can

Put me in bliss and
You lovely young muse shake
My mind with happiness, only
It's you who take me from the deep
Can cure melancholy, if you want
I will never be separated from you again, Dakini Sakshi, muse!
